

Amphibians & Reptiles of the Abbott Marshlands, Including Adjacent Uplands

Amphibians (12 species; 4 additional historical species considered extirpated)

- American Toad
- Fowler's Toad
- Northern Spring Peeper
- Northern Gray Tree Frog
- New Jersey Chorus Frog
- Bullfrog
- Green Frog
- Southern Leopard Frog
- Northern Cricket Frog
- Pickerel Frog
- Wood Frog
- Red-backed Salamander

Red-backed Salamander, on a glove (Photo –Stephanie Fox©)

Historical Amphibians

- Northern Dusky Salamander
- Northern Red Salamander
- Northern Two-lined Salamander
- Eastern Spade-foot Toad

Reptiles (13 species; 8 historical species considered extirpated)

- Common Snapping Turtle
- Stinkpot
- Eastern Box Turtle
- Common Map Turtle (rare in NJ)
- Red-bellied Turtle
- Red-eared Turtle
- Eastern Painted Turtle
- Northern Black Racer
- Northern Water Snake
- Northern Brown Snake
- Eastern Garter Snake
- Eastern Ribbon Snake
- Black Rat Snake

Box Turtle (Photo M.A. Leck©)

Historical reptiles

- Eastern Mud Turtle
- Spotted Turtle
- Bog Turtle
- Eastern Hognose Snake
- Northern Ringneck Snake
- Eastern Worm snake
- Smooth Green Snake
- Eastern Milk Snake

Compiled by Charles F. Leck, Ph.D., Emeritus, Rutgers University
Updated: April, 2017