

Announcing:

Outstanding Wetlands Project Award

The monetary award ($100) is given for a senior division project at the Mercer County Science and Engineering Fair that best addresses: Wetland Ecology, Wetland Organisms, Wetland Issues – and/or was carried out at the Abbott Marshlands.

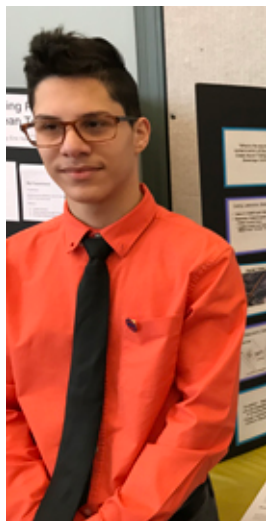

for information about the marshlands see: www.abbottmarshlands.org

~~~

Interested students, teachers, and/or parents should contact the Friends for the Abbott Marshlands (info@abbottmarshlands.org). Let us know your specific interest(s) or set up a time to chat about possible projects.

~~

Past Abbott Marshlands Wetlands Awardees

2018 - Arian Eloy Rodriguez. Senior, Trenton Central HS
"Assunpink Creek Water Quality"

2017 - Sonja Michaluk, 9th grade Hopewell Valley HS, for: "Networked Measurement of Ionic Strength to Monitor Waterway Health: The STONE "

2016- Jiyoung Kang, Princeton HS junior, for: "Impacts of Phragmites australis invasion on soil enzyme activities and methane emission of tidal marshes in Maryland, USA."

2015- Daisy DePaz, Trenton Central HS senior, for: "Does Land Use Affect Water Quality? Assessing the Health of

This wetlands award is intended to raise awareness of the unique opportunities offered for science study at the Abbott Marshlands and is a collaboration between the Friends for the Abbott Marshlands and the Tulpehaking Nature Center. The nature center is located at 157 Westcott Ave., Hamilton and is a Mercer County Facility.